MRS. COX IN A SAD PLIGHT.

AN ECCENTRIC WOMAN FICTIMIZED BY A GANG OF TOUGHS.

Says Her Parents Give Her Money to Proc-ecute Mission Work, sat Frefer to Have Her Keep Away from Them-Wed After a Short Contable in New Brusswick. Mrs. Andrew L. Cox was arraigned on a charge of vagrancy in the Long Island City Police Court yesterday murning. She wore a black cioth gown, a blue felt hat, and a veil. She came into the hands of the police at noon Thursday. A young man ran up to Policeman Charles Cassidy in Jackson avenue and said that as he passed Clancy's stables on Sixth street, between Jackson and Van Alst avenues. he heard a woman screaming. In the rear of the stable Cassidy found the woman lying on a bundle of hay. At sight of him she managed to get to her feet. She cried: 'Oh, save me! Oh, take me away from this

"Then she swooned. Cassidy called an am bulance, and the woman was taken to St. John's Hospital. There the physicians examined her and found her to be intoxicated. A thorough examination proved that the woman was bruised and injured. She was delirious and unable to tell a coherent story. The least reference to the stables sent her into a paroxysm. This morning she was so much improved that she was taken to the Police Court and arraigned for vagarancy. The police took this action because several firemen in engine house No. 1, on Jackson avenue, and said that the woman came to them begging money, explaining that she was a divorced woman and without that she was a divorced woman and without means of support.

After Cassidy had given his testimony Justice Ingram asked Mrs. Cox if she had anything to say. She said her husband was Alexander L. Cox of 111 Throop evenue. New Brunswick, N. J. She had been married four months. She and her husband lived with his daughter, Mrs. Currie. Her husband is 30 years, old, and she is 35. Work had been scarce in New Brunswick, and her husband, who is a brush maker, thought he would stand a better chance for employment in New York city. He had a job for a day on Tuesday in New Brunswick, but he told his wife to go to New York, hire a room, and await him at the Cortlandt Street Ferry that night. Mrs. Cox said her trunk was now at the ferry station. She said she walked from the ferry to the stadion of the Third avenue elevated road, and went up to she walked from the ferry to the station of the Third avenue elevated road, and went up to Thirty-fourth street, where she had heard there were desirable rooms to let.

Alighting at the station she went west. See ing a card on a house advertising rooms to rent, she rang the bell. A acman opened the door. White looking at the rooms Mrs. Cox says she was stricken with pains. In the region of her heart. That, I was subject to them, she said, will be attested by Dr. Long of New Brunswick, who is my physician.

"will be attested by Dr. Long of New Brunswick, who is my physician."

She assed the woman for a drink of water, but the woman gave her something else. Mrs. Cox says she was in too much pain to notice what I was. After that she became dizzy. She remembers going into the street, but that is all she does recollect, until she found herself being drazged along by a man on a street that seemed to be ined with stables. In a stable she said she was maltreated by a gang of mentil Thursday, when she was awakened by the sunlight streaming through a dusty window. She said she was a member of the American Volunteers, that she had had a pin of the organization on her collar, but it was ripped off. She said she had had a purse with $5 in bills and change which also was taken.

"I will hold you nending an investigation of your story, madam." said Justice Ingram." and if I find it to be true I assure you that those scoundrels will be brought to justice if the authorities can bring them there."

New BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Lizzie Cox of 111 Throop avenue this city, is the wife of Andrew L. Cox, a mechanic. She came to this city some time ago, and said that she was authohed to the Rescue Mission in New York city. She spoke at the various mission meetings around town, and made a very favorable impression. She got acquainted with Cox, who asked her to marry him after an acquaintance of one week.

"She was certainly the best talker I ever asked her to marry nim after an acquain of one week.

"She was certainly the best talker I ever heard," said Mr. Cox to-day, "and I thought that a woman who could talk as well as she would make a good wife, and I asked her to marry me. After living with her for a few weeks I found that she was a very eccentric woman, particularly about religion. She got so wrought up at times that she rainted away. One day this happened twice on the streets. Early this week she left home, saying that she was going to rent rooms in New York city. I did not have any idea that she was in Long island City."

was going to cont rooms in New York city. I did not have any idea that she was in Long island City."

Mrs. Cox has been married twice. When she came here she gave her name as Mrs. Lizzie Ensign, and said that she was the daughter of John Davis of Columbia Heights, Brooklyn. She said that her parents were very wealthy, but that they objected to her mission work, and while they gave her money to prosecute it, they preferred to have her keep away from them. Mrs. Davis talls very intelligently and very rapidly, and at first she was believed, but she made so many conflicting statements and got into such queer escapades that people lost confidence in her. She was not known to drink. One day the was waking up Throop avenue and noticed the members of the Raritan Engine Company at work on their apparatus. She persisted on going into the engine house and began to help clean the apparatus. When a policeman was called to remove her she flet out the rear door, and never stopped running until she reached her home. It is not known here whether her parents live on Columbia Heigh s or not.

BERLIN, Oct. 17 .- The story published in today's issue of the Vienna Neue Freie Presse alleging that the Russian War Office has ordered all of the regiments in the districts of Kieff. Odessa, and Charkoff to be at once put upon a full war footing, and that all officers on leave of absence and the retired list have been recalled to service is utterly discredited here. Nothing is known in official circles here showing that Russia is mobilizing troops, and the assertion of the New Freie Press that the movement on the part of Russia "is a step toward the complete mobilization of the Russian forces and portends that Russis will receive a European mandate to occupy Constantinople" is regarded as too ab-

SCOTLAND YARD UNDER A CLOUD. Its Officials Criticised for Mismanagement of the " Dynamite Cases," LONDON, Oct. 17 .- The Home Secretary, Sir Matthew White-Ridley, has expressed in decided terms his views as to the mismanagement in the case of the so-called dynamite conspirators. That there has been gross bungling somewhere is evident; and it is not improbable that the resignation of one or two of the leading officials at Scotland Yard will be announced before the last is heard of the "brilliant cap-tures" of Tynan and his friends. Moreover, the matter will certainly be brought before Par-

Inspecting Our Consulates.

LONDON, Oct. 17 .- A reporter had an interview this morning with Mr. Robert S. Chilton, Chief of the Consular Bureau of the Department of State at Washington. Mr. Chilton said he had visited all the United States Consulates in the United Kingdom and would start for Paris on Tuesday next, to inspect the American Consulates in France, after which he would inspect the consulates throughout Europe, India, China, and Japan, returning to Washington in the carly part of 1807. The general results of the inspec-tion thus far had been very satisfactory. He had found the consular service to be efficient, though not absolutely perfect, and he had not found himself obliged to recommend any removals.

Mectorship of the Catholic University.

LONDON, Oct. 17 .- An authority at the Vatican, writing on the subject of the deposition of Bishop John J. Keans from the rectorship of the Catholic University of America, says that his successor will be chosen after the arrival in Rome of Cardinal Satolli. All the Vatican officials believe that Bishop Spaiding of Peoria will be appointed to the rectorable, in view of his obtaining the donation of $300,000 made to the university by Miss Caldwell.

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 17.-The Hamburg-American line steamer Normannia, from Hamburg, sailed from here at noon to-day for New York, being one day behind her scheduled time. She will be due at New York on Saturday next, instead of Friday. Detention of mells and freight delayed the departure of the Normannia from Hamburg. PEN THRUSTS AT ENGLAND.

The Bitter Attacks of German Newspo BERLIN, Oct. 17 .- Although no facts are known which indicate the slightest change in the coolly courteous relations which for some time past have existed between Germany and Great Britain, the sudden outburst of strong anti-British opinion which has been joined in by the German newspapers of all parties has become the leading topic here. Denunctations of England's selfishness and arrogance, allosions to her isolation, and suggestions of how to diminish the pretensions of Great Britain appear in the North German Gazette, the Cologne Gazette, and other organs of less importance with a degree of quanimity which gives the idea that the utterances emanate from some common and responsible source. If these attacks common and responsible source. If these attacks had in reality any official origin their line of argument would be worth quoting, but it is emphatically denied at the Foreign Office that there is the alightest foundation for the prevaling rumors of an alteration in the relations between the German and English Governments. Apart from such denial on the part of the Foreign Office, scrutiny into the causes of the present boiling over of the German press proves that it is not founded upon anything whatever that is going on between the Berlin and London Governments, but that it is purely and simply a present boiling over of the German press proves that it is not founded upon anything whatever that is going on between the Berlin and London Governments, but that it is purely and simply a case of newspaper war. In which the journals take unlimited license, the Government not caring how far they may go.

What these newspapers are saying now arcse from the publication of articles in the leading London papers reporting the possible establishment of an English. Russian, and French alilance with the detachment of Italy from the Dreiband. The German journalists who are guiding the tone of the best papers in Germany are quite conversant with the truth of what an English Premier, now deceased, once said, that "English politics is not guided by such hare-brained chatter and irresponsible frivolity." But, coming on the heels of the jubils nt articles of the Erench papers over the recent visit of the Czar and Czarina to Paris, the style of the comments indulged in by the British press was felt to be intolerable and to demand some notice. The practical significance of this volcanic eruption of criticism on the part of the German papers, however, lies in lis tendency to heighten German hatred toward England, enabling the Government at an opportune moment to get the country to acclaim open heastlity to England, either diplomatic or actively physical.

When a calm-toned Catholic paper like the Cologne Volks Zeitung, now the leading organ of the Centreist party in the west of Germany, denounces England as conspiring against Germany at the Quirinal and exciting the Italian Government to desert the Dreibund, while the Berlin Tageblatt, the Berlin Past, and other organs urge the immediate ousting of the British from Egypt, it is evident that German feeling is ripe for anything against the English.

RAN A CIVILIAN THROUGH.

lowardly Attack of an Officer Upon an Unarmed Man. BERLIN, Oct. 17.-The official programme of the Reichstag, the opening of the session of which body will take place on Nov. 9, includes bills dealing with emigration, an amendment to the workingmen's insurance system, and a measure providing for reform of the system of military jurisdiction. The necessity for the latter measure is shown in an incident which occurred in a café in Carlsruhe last Tuesday

A civilian named Slebemann upon entering the café jostled against a chair upon which a Lieutenant named Brusewitz was sitting. The latter rose from his chair and roughly pushed Siebemann away, at the same time demanding Siebemann away, at the same time demanding that he apologize. Siebemann replied, "Leave me alone," whereupon Brusewitz drew his sword and threw himself upon Siebemann.

Several persons who were present interfered, and Siebemann for the time escaped. Brusewitz searched the café for him and finally found Siebemann in a passage, when he locked the door, barring all egress or ingress, and ran him through with his aword.

Brusewitz pleads justification, maintaining that the etiqueite of the military service required him to punish a civilian interfering with him, and it remains to be seen whether the military.

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

They All Receive Licenses in Spite of the LONDON, Oct. 17 .- The Social Purity agitators have received another setback from the Licensing Committee of the London County Council. On Wednesday and Thursday the committee took action on the applications of the various music halls for licenses for the ensuing year, and, despite the objections advanced by mem-bers of the Social Purity Society, of which it will be recalled Mrs. Ormiston Chant is one of the leading spirits, renewed all of them.

The society, which once succeeded in preventing the issuance of a license to the Empire Music Hall, has based its objections upon a class of female visitors who frequent the promenades of the halls. Each woman who appeared in opposition before the committee this year said that when she visited the promenades in search of evidence she herself was the only re-spectable woman there, a statement that was so sweeping in its characterization that it did not meet with belief. According to the Brooklyn Directory, no John Davis lives on Columbia Heights.

Talk of Subsidizing More Merchant Vesseis to Act as Cruisere.

LONDON, Oct. 17. - Since the Czar compliment-ed the "very fine escort" which the Channel Squadron afforded him in his crossing from Portsmouth to Cherbourgh, increased interest has been taken in the condition of the British navy. Mr. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty, has been devoting much thought during the rehas been devoting muon thought during the re-cess to the whole question of naval defence; and he is credited with the intention, in next year's naval estimates, of considerably increasing the sum at present provided for substituting mer-chant vessels to act as armed cruisers in time of War. The present amount set apart for this purpose The present amount set apart for this purpose is £48.700, and rumor has it that it will be increased to at least £80,000, in order to allow of nine more vessels participating in the sum annually set aside. Among the new conditions imposed will be not merely an increase in the number of ships, but greater efficiency in their manning and equipment. It is reported that the price to be paid for the new first-class cruisers is £440,000 each. The highest tender was Messrs. Armstrong's, their price being about £500,000, evidently showing that they did not want the work.

THEY MUST BUILD SHIPS AT HOME. Subuidized German Vessels Must be Built in German Shippards.

LONDON, Oct. 17 .- Berlin officialdom is showing its teeth toward England just now. Emperor. William has caused a notification to be made to certain leading German steamshiptines that in future all steamships owned by companies in receipt of State subsidies must be con-structed in German shippards.

The notification, which appears to have been communicated verbally through a ministerial channel, is said to have been called forth by the number of vessels which are in course of con-struction by British firms for German com-panies.

TROOPS ON THE MOVE.

Exchanges of Station-Practice Marches

Cymnastic Exercises. WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.-The changes of station under the orders issued about a month ago are progressing, and, as usual, there are drawbacks to offset advantages in the transfers. It is obvious that, since there is a difference in the desirability of posts, those who get the pleasanter ones may congratulate themselves on the transfer, whereas the vacating tanants are not so fortunate. The interchange apart from any strategic reasons, based on the need of strengthening certain posts and the abandonment of others, is usually justified on the ground of the dividing good and bad stations fairly, and on giving a variety of scene and experience, and hence of military efficiency. But it is sometimes a hardship and expense to move, especially for those officers who have families Still, the amounts avaliable for transportstion are so small that the number of changes can rarely be called excessive.

In the Department of Columbia the Sixteenth Infantry, which has relieved the Fourth, the latter having gone to Fort Sheridan, has Its headquarters and Companies C. D. F. G. and H, at Fort Sherman, with A at Beise Bar racks, and B and E at Spokane. From Fort Camby, in the same department, Battery H, Fifth Artillery, had been transferred by way of Astoria and San Francisco to Fort Hamilton in New York harbor. Batteries A. B. C. E. I. K. L. and M are also coming East. The Third Artillery, transferred from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific, has its headquarters and seven patteries, A. C. F. G. H. I. and K. at tne Presido, two batteries on Alcatraz Island, and one at Fort Mason. At the Presidio there are also the headquarters and four companies of the First Infantry, which gives Col. Shafter, in virtue of his rank, the command of the post. When the Fifth Artillery arrives from the Pacific, batteries E. K. and L. will be at Fort Wadsworth headquarters, and A. H. and I at Fort Hamilton, and B. C. and M at Fort Slocum. In addition to the changes of stations there

In addition to the changes of stations there have recently been movements for autumn manneuvres and field exercise. The athletic connectitions at Denver, arranged under Gen. Wheaton's direction, proved very successful, there being forty-eight competitors, representing four cavalry and four infantry regiments. The gold and silver medials to: winners of dirst and second places in each individual event were attached to the coats of the winners by Miss Octavia Wheaton and Miss Merriam, and Gen. Wheaton congratulated each man as he received his prize. Blacksmith Ross, Ninth Cavalry, had a gold meadal as winner of the largest number of points. In the Department

Cavairy, had a gold meadal as winner of the largest number of boilds. In the Department of Unifforma, Col. Shafter, reviewing the reports of athletic exercises, invites the attention to the novelty of men swimming in light marching order, including rifles, this reat being emoloyed in August by three men.

Troops A. E. J. and H. Sixth Cavalry, stationed at Fort Myer, have derived much benefit from a practice march with camping and evolutions in the Shenandoah Valley. Outpost duty, scouting, Cossack posts, and so on helped to fill up the programme of the six weeks. In Missouri the Third Cavairy has had a practice march of 500 miles between Jefferson Barracks and Springfield. A part of the weeks. In Missouri the Third Cavalry has had a practice march of 500 miles between Jefferson Harracks and Springfield. A part of the country was rough and wooded, and the crossing of the Merrimac River was in quite deep water. Loops t. E. and G. Third Cavalry, at Fort Ethan Allen, have also had a practice march. Battery A. Second Artillery, from Fort Riley, attended the militia encampment at Toneks.

Fort Riley, attended the militia encampment at Topeks.

The interest in athletic exercises increases in the army. Gen Merritt has ordered a course of company gymnastics for enlisted mei. at all the posts of the Departmen of Missouri, beginning Dec. 1. They are to be held three days in each week, and to last at least forty minutes. Men over 40 years old or exempted by physical disabilities will be excused. The usual exercises and trainings are prescribed, but it is notleeable that running coulpyed and escalading are added.

The September recruiting statistics for the line show for the general service 351 men enlisted to 2,857 rejected, the proportion being about one to eight. This is the return from cities, but at stations and posts, as usual, the enlistments outnumbered the rejections, the proportions being 409 and 312. In the special recruiting service the enlistments numbered 57, and the rejections 200.

120,000 Quarts of Champages to Be Put Up at Auction.

WASRINGTON, Oct. 17 .- A great stir has been created in the European wine trade by the throwing upon the market at auction, in one sale, of 10,000 dozen quart bottles of champagne. Consul Meeker, at Bradford, in reporting the fact to the State Department, says that this wine, which is first quality brench vintage, was taken in trust by a New York hanking house from a celebrated wine firm of New York, and finding it necessary to realize, they preferred to sell it abread rather than upset values at home. At retail in the United States this wine would bring from $250,000 to $350,000, but the Britretail in the United States this wine would bring from $250,000 to $350,000, but the Brit-lah and French experts, who feel that it is a very serious thing that so much champagne should be thrown on the market at one time and in such a manner, predict that it will not realize more than $75,000.

Princeton Men Rounding Into Shape

Rapidiy. Painceron, Oct. 17 .- A marked improvement has been noticed in the football practice on Princeton's 'varsity field during this week. The coachers have made the line as strong as is posalble with the material at hand, and the men are becoming used to their positions and each other, so that from now on better team work is looked for. The experiments that the coachers have been making in the line are now practically at an end, and with the single exception of right tackie it may safely be said that if changes are made during the rest of the season it will be only because of injury to the men who are now GROCERY BUYER, filling the positions.

Last year Tyler was not considered heavenough to play tackle on the 'varsity as it should be played, until he was compelled to go in on account of Lea's injury, but this season by clever handling he has developed into a by clever handling he has developed into a fairly good guard. Capt, Cochran considers Armstrong the biggest "find" of the season Last year Armstrong played as a half back, but was not much of a success, and this year he asked to be tried in the line. His work at right guard has improved to a degree that enables him to nold his own against even Holt. He is playing a flerce, aggressive game, and with a rew more weeks coaching will prove a hard man for any guard to handle. While Hildehrand is recovering from his injury, Geer is being tried at right tackle, where he plays a steady though somewhat slow game. At left tackle Church is paying the game of his life. Thompson has made wonderful strides in his playing at left end lately. He always breaks up the interference coming at his end and as a general thing gets the man with the ball.

Back of the line is where the Tigers will have the greater part of their strength. With a couple of half backs like Bannard and Kelley and a full back of Baird's ability, with Smith to pass the ball back, Princeton will have a likely combination. Bannard is a reliable ground gainer and a strong kicker as well. Kelley's only weakness is his siowness in end plays. Reiter and Rosengarten are both fit to play varsity football, and they are causable of doing fully as good work as Haunard and Kelley. Baird's punting is the best seen on Princeton's field for a long time. Perhaps Wheeler gets his kicks off quicker, but he is not nearly so effective as Haird in other ways. Either one is capable of filling the place in first-class style. fairly good guard. Capt. Cochran considers

Mrs. Amy Price of This City Shoots Herself at Her Stater's Home in Philadelphia, Mrs. Amy Anna Price, widow of Billy Price, nce manager of a theatre at Los Angeles, committed suicide on Friday night by shooting berself through the heart at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Clausen, 1572 Vienna street, Philadelphis. Mrs. Price's husband died five or six years ago, but for some time before his death the couple had not lived together. Mrs. Price was 29 years old and a beautiful woman. She came to New York about five years ago and began doing newspaper work. She had previously written for Chicago and Boston papers, and for a time she earned a good living here. Two years ago she boarded with a Mrs. Davis at 10d West Fortleth street. Last June Mrs. Davis moved to Brooklyn and Mrs. Price took apartments elsewhere. About six months ago Mrs. Price wrote to her sister in Philadelphia that she had become engaged to a young busliness man in New York. In other letters she told Mrs. Clausen that her flancé had furnished a flat and made arrangements to take her there as soon as they were married. Several days ago Mrs. Clausen got a letter from Mrs. Price seemed despondent, and when, several days ago, Mrs. Clausen got a letter from Mrs. Price seemed despondent, and when, several days ago, Mrs. Clausen received a telegram announcing the young man's death, she sent word to her sister to come to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Price sceeped the invitation, and, leaving New York on Friday afternoon, arrived in Philadelphia at 6 o'clock and went straight to her sister's house. She retired to her room, and an hour later Mrs. Clausen heard a pistol shot, and, running up stairs, found her sister dead. Mrs. Price left a letter, in which she said that she had nothing to live for, now that her lover was dead.

He said she had been despondent for some time.
